OBITUARIES

Lloyd G. Paulsen

SUMNER — Lloyd G. Paulsen, 74, a resident of Sumner for the past five years, died Monday, June 12, at Good Samaritan Hospital in Puyallup.

Paulsen, a former 40-year resident of Puyallup, was born July 18, 1920, in Palouse, Wash., to Edward and Vernona (Arrington) Paulsen. He had lived in Chehalis for 30 years prior to moving to Puyallup.

A 1938 graduate of Chehalis High School, he was a veteran of the U.S. Navy serving during World War II.

He enjoyed hunting and gardening, and was a member of the Foothills Methodist Church in Sumner.

Survivors include a son, Rick, of Bellingham; two daughters, Marni Althauser of Centralia, and Debbie Tecca of Puyallup; a step daughter, Nancy Knudsen of Puyallup; his twin brother, Lyle of Sumner; two sisters, Helen Stam and Verna Huber, both of Chehalis; a step brother, Don Fiscus of Greenville, Ariz.; 11 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorials may be donations to the Foothills Methodist Church Building Fund, 12112 205th Ave., Sumner, Wash., 98390.

Visitation may be made until 8 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday at Newell-Hoerling's Mortuary in Centralia, which is in charge of arrangements.
